

A student of science is always inquisitive. The Science Lab is the place where a lot of unanswered questions come to the fore and are practically demonstrated to the students. All the experiments are conducted here in the most hygienic and safe manner.

