

Music & Dance bring out the talent of the students and give them the opportunity to de-stress. Music and Dance education play an important role in a child's overall development intellectually, socially, and emotionally. They offer creative challenges and aesthetic appreciation as well as self-expression and self-discovery opportunities.

